PEP is a tax exempt 501(c)3 organization which has been providing parenting education since 1982.

If you are a professional who works with families or children, please consider becoming a Professional Member of PEP. As always, Professional Members are eligible for PEP's discounted member rates on classes and books, in addition to free attendance at Open Forum Counseling sessions. PEP's Professional Membership listing on the website includes a brief description of each Professional Member's services. A resource file of Professional Members is maintained at the PEP Office for those seeking specialized services. Professional Members are invited to work with the Membership Committee on developing other services and connections for these important members.

Yes, I support the principles and mission of the Parent Encouragement Program.

Here is $75 for my annual Professional Membership.
